DIGNITARIES SPEAKING

ACOFF PRESIDENT

DUANE G. KOEHLER, DO, FACOFF DIST.

Duane G. Koehler, DO, FACOFF dist. is an osteopathic family physician in private practice in Miami, Oklahoma. As President of the ACOFP Board of Governors, Dr. Koehler helps establish national healthcare policy and training standards for osteopathic family medicine.

A dedicated medical educator, Dr. Koehler is DIO of Teaching Health Centers residency programs in eastern Oklahoma. He also serves as Assistant to the Dean for Rural Education and as a preceptor in Family Practice, Rural Medicine at the Oklahoma State University Health Sciences Center, College of Osteopathic Medicine (OSUHSC-COM).

Dr. Koehler had 15 years of pre-hospital care experience before entering medical school, has been self-employed and has been employed by a corporate entity in the nearly 21 years of clinical practice. He has long been active in professional organizations as a Past President of the Oklahoma Osteopathic Association, delegate-at-large to the American Osteopathic House of Delegates and President of the Northeastern District Osteopathic Society.

POMA PRESIDENT

JOAN M. GRZYBOWSKI, DO, FACOFF

Joan M. Grzybowski, DO, FACOFF, was named POMA’s 107th president in 2018. She is board-certified in family medicine and resides in Conshohocken, PA. She is employed by the Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine as an Assistant Professor and practicing physician.

A member of the POMA Executive Committee and the POMA Foundation Board of Directors, she serves as a delegate to the POMA, the American Osteopathic Association and the American College of Osteopathic Family Physicians (ACOFF). Dr. Grzybowski is also a director on the American Osteopathic Board of Family Physicians, a fellow of the ACOFP, and a past president of the Pennsylvania Osteopathic Family Physicians Society (POFPS).
